Welcome to a sacred journey of faith, fellowship, and renewal at our Beersheba Women's Retreat, where the theme is drawn from the comforting words of Psalm 23 and the relationship of the Shepherd with the lambs. This retreat is a sanctuary for women seeking spiritual nourishment, connection, and the embrace of the Shepherd's love.

Introducing Pastor Bee

The Rev. Dr. Birgitte Thaarup French or “Pastor Bee” is a lifelong United Methodist who grew up as a “PK” in Copenhagen, Denmark. In 1983 she became a medical missionary with the General Board of Global Ministries and served for 13 years in Congo, Algeria and Kenya. She received her MDiv from Candler School of Theology at Emory University and her DM from Memphis Theological Seminary.

Pastor Bee has served several churches in the N.G.A and Memphis conferences. She currently serves as senior pastor at Colonial Park UMC in Memphis. She is also the Dean of TWK Licensing School, is a Resident in Ministry mentor, an adjunct professor at MTS, and serves on the Exec. Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministers.

Pastor Bee is married to Niels French and together they have two children, Fletcher and Hanna. Fletcher lives in Chattanooga with Casey and Hanna lives with Jeppe in Aalborg, Denmark. In her free time, she loves to take long walks, read mysteries, cook a good meal, bake bread and knit.

She is very excited to lead us in this retreat!
